Talent Resource Solutions is announcing our new presence in the U.K, with the addition of Dave Hillman to the TRS team. Dave comes to us with over ten years of experience owning and managing his own search firm located just north-west of London, in Edlesborough, Buckinghamshire. With his firm, Dave provided innovative management- and executive-level recruiting services that focused on customized solutions designed to achieve the specific needs of each of his clients. Dave's recruiting principles mirror the methodology of the TRS executive team, and he will be a natural fit for our team. Prior to his career in executive search, Dave had a successful corporate career, holding senior leadership positions in Sales & Marketing with Diageo PLC and other CPG companies.

Dave has already added value for TRS clients, with key placements within leading consumer brands in sales and marketing roles for UK-based companies seeking growth in the US, and working with our Philadelphia office's Jon Littman to make key placements with US-based companies desiring growth in the UK. With the addition of Dave and Blackstar Search to the TRS brand, clients interested in expanding their business across the Atlantic can make use of expanded fulfillment capabilities at TRS. TRS is now more able than ever to find that perfect candidate with cross-Atlantic connections with the same speed, quality, and execution our clients have come to expect.

We at TRS look forward to using our expanded search capabilities in the UK and Europe, meeting more of our clients' global needs and helping our clients to meet global business goals by finding and recruiting the top talent TRS is known for.
